

The Breakfast Club of Nashville Information

This memo is to introduce you to the Breakfast Club of Nashville, which held its inaugural meeting on August 4, 2005. We have an impressive list of members and hope that you will also consider joining.

The official name of the Club is The Breakfast Club of Nashville. Membership is limited to one professional woman per profession. Members endeavor to refer business to other members of the Club, but the Club also provides opportunities for connections on a more personal level. We meet each Thursday for breakfast at the Mad Platter, with socializing from 7-7:30 a.m., and breakfast from 7:30-8:30. The first breakfast of each month is a members only meeting for personal exchanges (current needs, work/personal updates, etc.). The other breakfast meetings feature speakers from the community or the membership. Guests are welcome to attend these meetings, at a cost of $15. Dues are $125 per quarter. Those seeking membership may be sponsored by a current member after attending as a guest twice. Occasionally we substitute a morning meeting for a social or evening reception hosted by various members, giving them an opportunity to show off their business or home. .

If you would like more information on membership, please contact the membership chair or a current member.

We look forward to welcoming you to Breakfast Club of Nashville.
